In 2019, Michael-José successfully completed his matriculation at Elsie River High School, setting the foundation for his academic pursuits. With a strong desire to expand his knowledge and skills, he enrolled in B Admin at university. Although he encountered challenges along the way and made the difficult decision to drop out during his second year in 2021, Michael-José remains resilient and committed to his path of self-discovery.

One of Michael-José's proudest achievements is his participation in two half-marathons, showcasing his discipline, determination, and perseverance. Additionally, he embarked on his entrepreneurial journey at a remarkably young age of 11 and a half, starting his own business. This early experience fuelled his desire to be his own boss and attain the freedom that comes with entrepreneurship.

Currently operating a mobile car wash business, Michael-José aspires to secure funding to replace his lost vehicle, which is crucial for him to reach his clients and expand his business. With a profound passion for cars, he is driven to excel in the automotive industry and firmly believes in the adage that there is an opportunity to create jobs in this sector as well as become a thriving entrepreneur as well.
