I-CAN STUDENT

"A man who thinks he knows everything, knows nothing"

"The I-CAN Design Thinking Course helped me to think differently, creatively and provided me with a structure for problem solving of many community challenges."

Revaldo Santho, a resident of Ravensmead, grew up in a nurturing environment with his parents. In 2018, he successfully completed his matriculation at Ravensmead High School. He embarked on a college journey to pursue entrepreneurship, but in 2020, he made the difficult decision to discontinue his studies.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Peer Education Certificate

HOBBIES

Music
Marketing

INTERESTS

Problem-Solving
Innovation
Wealth Creation

Passionate about marketing and drawn to the enchantment of music, Revaldo found solace in these interests. He took great pride in earning his Peer Education Certificate, which further ignited his desire to become an entrepreneur. His ultimate goal was to utilize entrepreneurship as a means of problem-solving, fostering innovation, and effectively managing wealth.

Revaldo possessed a deep concern for social issues, particularly the injustice of racism. He firmly believed that individuals should not be unfairly judged based on their skin colour, ethnicity, or cultural background. Embracing the idea that we are all human beings deserving of equal opportunities, he aimed to address this matter.

Revaldo understood the transformative power of music, recognizing its ability to facilitate communication beyond social barriers. He believed that through music, one's message could transcend borders, reaching the farthest corners of the world.

In summary, Revaldo Santho strived to make a positive impact on society, leveraging his entrepreneurial aspirations, passion for marketing, and love for music to advocate for equality and amplify voices that deserve to be heard.
