Engaging with people and participating in various sports activities are among Kayla's greatest passions. She finds joy in interacting with others and both watching and playing sports. Kayla takes immense pride in her achievements as a Provincial hockey player and being admitted as an Attorney, Conveyancer, and Notary of the High Court of South Africa. These milestones represent her dedication and expertise in the legal field.

Driven by a keen interest in entrepreneurship, Kayla recognizes the potential for freedom, empowerment, and exposure that it offers. Addressing the social issue of accessibility in legal services is a primary concern for Kayla. She acknowledges that while legal expertise is often accessed by affluent individuals, it is essential for all members of society to have access to such services. Kayla aims to bridge this gap, particularly in poorer communities, where lack of knowledge and accessibility can lead to exploitation.

Passionate about rehabilitation and reintegrating individuals into society, Kayla believes in the power of healing. She envisions a world where even those society may overlook, such as prisoners, are given opportunities for rehabilitation and reintegration. By empowering and supporting individuals, Kayla believes they can make different decisions and ultimately contribute positively to society.

In summary, Kayla Audrey-Marie Agulhas is a driven individual with a legal background and a passion for sports, entrepreneurship, and social justice. Her dedication to addressing issues of accessibility and rehabilitation stems from her belief in the transformative power of knowledge and second chances.
