"Too busy watering my own grass to check if yours is greener"

"The I-CAN Design Thinking Course helped me to think differently, creatively and provided me with a structure for problem solving of many community challengers."

Deslynn Jessica Margere Classen is a resident of Salberau, Elsie's River, where she resides with her mother. In 2019, Deslynn successfully completed her matriculation at Goodwood College. In her free time, she finds joy in swimming, listening to music, and honing her drawing skills.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Completed a Computer Basics course,
Records Management for Registry Clerks course,
Introduction to Office Administration course,
Customer Care course and an Introduction to Design Thinking course.

HOBBIES

Listening to Music
Modeling
Drawing

Deslynn has acquired a diverse range of skills through various courses, including Computer Basics, Records Management for Registry Clerks, Introduction to Office Administration, Customer Care, and Introduction to Design Thinking.

Driven by a strong entrepreneurial spirit, Deslynn aspires to achieve financial independence and work autonomously. She embraces challenges as an opportunity for personal growth and is determined to forge her own path in life. Rejecting the notion of working for others indefinitely, Deslynn made the bold decision to end her contract early in order to gain first-hand knowledge and experience as an entrepreneur or self-employed individual. Crime stands out as the primary social issue Deslynn aims to address. It's prevalence poses significant challenges not only in her community but also in societies at large, as it hampers trust and everyday activities such as simple errands or essential shopping.

Deslynn's passion lies in proving herself and surpassing the expectations others may have of her. She derives satisfaction from dispelling underestimations and demonstrating her true abilities, fuelling her motivation and drive. In summary, Deslynn Jessica Margere Classen is an ambitious individual with a diverse skill set and a passion for personal growth and entrepreneurship. She seeks to address the issue of crime and aims to prove herself as the best version of herself, finding motivation in overcoming challenges and exceeding expectations.
